TRIP ADVISOR COMMENT

- We run an innovative programme placing makers in schools and communities
- We have helped establish two major festivals in Bovey Tracey – The Contemporary Craft Festival and Nourish Festival (crafts, food and music)
- We tour exhibitions and events nationally and to rural communities in the south west
- We give people of all ages a chance to have a go at a range of arts activities
- We support and guide makers into rewarding creative careers

“He made the most amazing sculpture, full of narrative and expression and was profoundly affected by his achievement”

Tutor Naomi Vincent was struck by the intense focus and sense of achievement from a boy who usually has great difficulty with communication and application in the classroom.

“I’ve always considered that gaining membership of the Devon Guild was a major milestone in my career and it has helped me tremendously in giving me support and confidence to follow the path I want to take”
